A tall, black floor-standing speaker with multiple drivers is positioned on a black base. It is part of a larger audio system setup.

A small, ornate silver trophy or award is placed on the floor in the bottom left corner.
