"Colorful yet uncolored, the DeVore Orangutan O/96 is the loudspeaker many of us have been waiting for. ...The O/96 is here to stay—as both a commercial product and as a well-loved part of my playback system." Art Dudley, Stereophile Magazine

"The Orangutan is a great looking and immensely enjoyable loudspeaker that's a gift to the tube amp lover, it can turn a handful of Watts into a living, breathing musical experience that you will be hard pressed to turn off. That is what living is all about." Jason Kennedy, The Ear Magazine

"The sound I got out of these gorgeously put-together boxes was shockingly deep and stunningly refined — I bought the demos immediately as I couldn't bear to let them out of my house." Scott Hull, Part Time Audiophile
