Our highlights this year will be the new generation of the worldwide unique Emperor rack system and our sound integration solutions for furniture, but also our classic hi-fi racks and accessories. You'll be surprised!

finite elemente will prepare in collaboration with our exhibition partners Ascendo and Audionet a presentation of sonic and technical superlatives. "Sensation and Performance" is our motto.

We also invite you for a relaxing get-together on Saturday after 5pm with European delicacies and beverages. Come and see us.
