

When one shelf is not enough .

Cult soundboard is no longer alone - Order now!

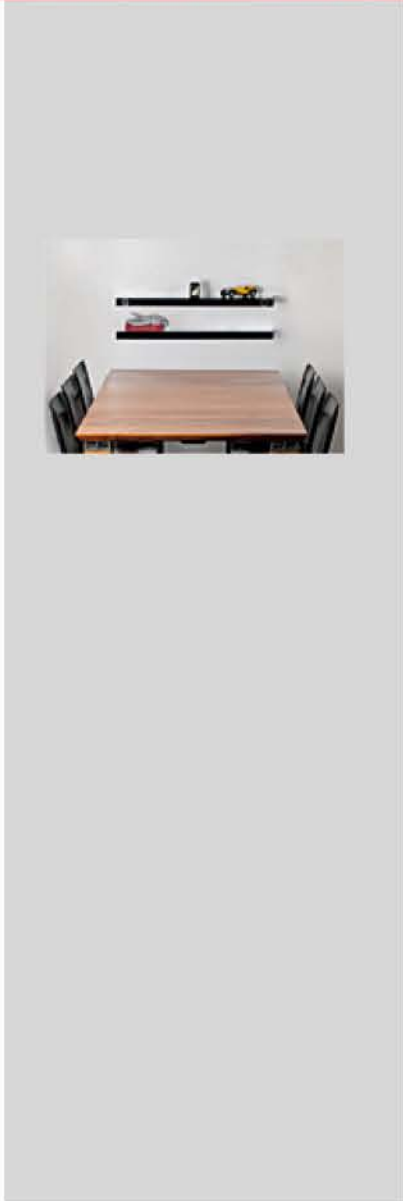

finite elemente now offers a complete line of shelving elements with a lifestyle design: The soundboard Hohrizontal 51, which has received several honours, is now available individually without music. Solo 51 is its name, although you can use it in many different combinations. Solo 51 is a real eye-catcher on the wall - whether it is alone or in a group, with or even without a soundboard.

Solo 51 also functions as a stylish upgrade of the brilliant iPod dock. You can now expand the sonorous shelf Hohrizontal 51 to become a fully-fledged shelving system. And all of this in consistently high-quality workmanship. The shelf Solo 51 is available - as is the soundboard Hohrizontal 51 - in six trendy high-gloss lacquer colours as well as classic walnut veneer. It is delivered along with an adjustable wall mount. You can mount the shelf in a few simple steps.

SOLO 51 is available from mid-June 2011.

And remember: Music is my first love!
