

xtel

Dexter

1. The bookshelves are made of wood and are mounted on a black base. The bookshelves are arranged in a line, receding into the background. The base is supported by several small metal feet. To the right, a book is placed on the black surface. The background wall features a blue and white abstract pattern. The floor is made of light-colored wood.

